

Abstract

Five Year-4 undergraduate students in Green Energy Science were invited to participate in the World Energy Engineering Congress (WEEC) 2019 in Washington DC, USA, in September 2019. In this talk, they will share the highlights of their trip and their learning experience.